CONTENT AND TARGETS

The management of the function Supply Management was deploying a set of measures to support the transition of the newly formed management towards the desired leadership culture and individual attitudes. Key words in the culture aimed for are the values: self-responsibility, innovation, courage, peer to peer collaboration and mature communication.

The teambuilding initiative was part of the overall transition project and the Cassidian "Expedition" was an event within this initiative to contribute in a sustainable manner to this transition.

The management of the CP Organization observed a gap of the actual leadership understanding and behavior of the acting managers, compared to the expected attitude and behavior, even more taking in consideration the challenges derived from the recently elaborated Strategy 2020.
